

Building a Climate-Resilient Farm through Permaculture Design

Tuesday, September 17, 2024 · 2-4 pm · FREE
VSU Randolph Farm Pavilion, 4415 River Rd, Petersburg, VA

Human activities have impacted weather-related disasters. Are farms and ranches helpless in the face of nature's fury? The answer is a resounding no! Implementing a permaculture-based plan of resilient farms and ranches makes it possible to bounce back quickly from nature's setbacks and minimize or eliminate them in the first place.
