

QuickBooks for Farmers

Thursday, December 7, 2023 · 7-9 pm · FREE
Southwest Virginia Higher Education Center
1 Partnership Circle, Abingdon, VA

Come and join other farmers for an evening designed to help both beginning and experienced farmers learn to manage accounting and recordkeeping for their businesses. This workshop is presented by a local professional accountant who has years of experience helping others while running her own successful small farm operation. The topics to be covered include setting up financial records; preparing a chart of accounts; entering payments, deposits and invoices; tracking customers; creating estimates; reconciling bank statements; and analyzing financial data and printing reports. Training does not include QuickBooks software or licenses.
